

fadzil:

hey, baldrick. are you with iqbal in this near time? did you notice him kinda... different?

baldrick:

yeah.... i notice that he is different. maybe the resignation and stuff make him all shamble up

jonathan:

don't forget that he is still try to heal from burnout and other mental stuff ("sips tea")

badri:

yeah, he is messed up currently

baldrick:

hey, don't say that

badri:

but all he do now is just sit, doomscroll and just melt into the floor

jonathan:

and been gone through this weird phases. and been mad to all of the other personas with different flavors; per say

fadzil:

i am really concern. last time i check the pattern that is similar to this capacity is on the protokol temasya on our first kejohanan.

baldrick:

yeah, i don't even know what to do right now. i still can access the memory vault; so, it is not like the capital N incident or anything

jonathan:

and the hiatus he take is, longer than usual. almost 2 months now. new record (" sips tea")

badri:

all i can say is; if he does not bounce back from this quick, he will be consume by this despair and we all might not make it

("iqbal suddenly appears")

iqbal:

what did you say about me?...

fadzil:

woah, iqbal, take it easy young man.

iqbal:

no, no. i want to HEAR what you guys say about me behind my back

baldrick:

ok, so, we just concern about you. that's all

iqbal:

you say that i will be consumed by the despair and we all might not make it out alive?

fadzil:

control your emotions, control your anger-

iqbal:

I AM ANGRY!!!!

badri:

ok, iqbal, you might not be hearing and understand me enough. i said-

iqbal:

I CANNOT EVEN LAUGH OR SMILE PROPERLY! THE HAUNTING AND LOOMING ANXIETY KEEPS ME BACK TO THE REALITY THAT I AM NEVER ENOUGH OR THAT I AM WORTHLESS

("everyone except baldrick take a step back")

iqbal:

EVERY TIME, I SAT IN SILENCE, THE HAUNTING BEGIN. slowly, all the task i have postponed creeps in. the guilt, the fear, all of it! I JUST WANT TO TAKE A REST! DON'T BLAME ME, IF I DOOMSCROLL ALL DAY LONG AND DO NOT FINISH ANYTHING! LET IT BE DESPAIR OR DEPRESSION. I JUST WANT TO REST AND MY MIND WON'T ALLOW ME TO.

baldrick:

take it easy, champ.

iqbal:

the moment i try to relax and clear my mind, all you do is give out all the task i need to do or i have postponed it. WHERE IS THE REMINDER WHEN I WAS DOOMSCROLLING OR ACTUALLY BORED AND NEED TO DO THE JOB, HUH?

baldrick:

you are NOT saying these things to burden us. you are just mad and you an outlet to let it all out. i know that-

iqbal:

yeah, what that you know?! WHAT YOU KNOW ABOUT ME?! TELL ME!!!!

baldrick:

we are just some fragments of your mind that you create to help you. albeit it imaginary, but we are here right now. i know you are not who you are right now. you are consumed by anger. you have been through shock, denial and now you are in the state of anger.

iqbal:

shock, denial, anger; then what? depression? acceptance? what do you want me to depress about? my current situation?! YEAH! I AM PRETTY DEPRESS ABOUT IT. all i have face is changes, changes, changes. problem come one after another. one by one i face it; although i don't know a bloody thing that really happen, and one by one i am drained. now freaking tell me what phases i will be on next?! what do you want me to accept?? accepting that my life is like this now and i can no longer fix it??? WHAT DO YOU THINK THIS IS THE STAGES OF GRIEF?! WHAT AM I EVEN GRIEVING OF?!

jonathan:

breathe, iqbal. we have many different phases for different stages. albeit can have similarities, but different path can be taken by different people-

iqbal:

THEN TELL ME WHAT I MUST DO NEXT!!!! i don't know what i am facing through, i don't know what mental issues i am currently facing, i don't have a stable permanent job, i don't have any friends or family here, I DON'T EVEN HAVE THE CONTROL OF MYSELF! ALL I NEED NOW IS JUST CLARITY ON WHAT I AM FACING!!!

badri:

take it easy, iqbal. we all are here and try to understand the same situation that you are facing. don't you care about us too?

iqbal:

WHAT HAPPEN IF I DON'T?! all day i have been stuck here, alone. the day and night merge into each other. i don't know if it's monday or thursday!! all the time, one moment it is fine, then i don't. now i have the time to do the stuff i like; my hobbies, my projects, my passion. but my mental is just insanely messed up that, all i can do is trying to keep myself together...

fadzil:

chill, chill, we are here. we here to-

iqbal:

YOU ARE HERE TO WHAT?! TO TELL ME THAT THIS IS A SMALL PROBLEM AND WHATEVER STAGES I AM IN THAT THIS WILL ALL GONE?! i don't care if this grief or change or even maybe just another canon event of my life! i am currently sick, tired and i start to lose my sanity! i created you guys to comfort me. and be there for me!

baldrick:

we are deeply sorry that-

iqbal:

if you are truly sorry, please, i am at my lowest and i cannot have myself as my biggest enemy right now. i am just tired.....
